

The American Institute for History Education is pleased to offer high-quality professional development for teachers of Advanced Placement courses. We will specialize in the social studies subjects. Our workshops are intended to help novice and experienced AP teachers. In addition, we encourage teachers of Honors classes to take advantage of this unique opportunity. The AP summer workshops will be held during the week of July 26–30, 2010 on the campus of Rowan University in Glassboro, N.J.

AIHE's Social Studies Advanced Placement Summer Workshops have been endorsed by the Middle States Regional Office of the College Board.

Courses Offered

United States History	This workshop is designed to prepare high school United States History teachers to teach this course in their high schools, to provide students with the analytical skills and factual knowledge necessary to deal critically with the problems and materials in United States History, and to develop the skills necessary for arriving at conclusions on the basis of an informed judgment and the skills for presenting reasons and evidence clearly and persuasively in essay format. The teachers will also be introduced to the latest College Board changes to the test and scoring strategies.
European History	This workshop is designed to prepare high school European History teachers to teach this course in their high schools and to develop (a) an understanding of some of the principle themes in modern European History, (b) an ability to analyze historical evidence, and (c) an ability to analyze and to express historical understanding in writing. The teachers will also be introduced to the latest College Board changes to the test and scoring strategies.
World History	This workshop is designed to prepare high school teachers of World History to teach this course in their high schools, and to provide the students with the necessary background knowledge, analytical skills, and critical writing skills to be successful when taking the Advanced Placement test. Emphasis on the non European world and the interactions that occurred are highlighted in this course. The teachers will also be introduced to the latest College Board changes to the test and scoring strategies.
Psychology	This workshop is designed to prepare high school teachers to develop a curriculum that will prepare their students to take the Advanced Placement Psychology test and to introduce students to the systematic and scientific study of the behavior and mental processes of human beings and other animals. The teachers will also be introduced to the latest College Board changes to the test and scoring strategies.
United States Government and Politics	This workshop is designed to prepare high school US Government and Politics teachers to teach this course in their high schools, to develop pedagogical methods and techniques for teaching specific skills, and to provide the high school student with a learning experience equivalent to that obtained in college introductory U.S. Government and Politics courses. The teachers will also be introduced to the latest College Board changes to the test and scoring strategies.

All teachers will receive a certificate for 30 hours of College Board approved instruction. In addition, all New Jersey teachers will receive 30 professional development hours from the American Institute for History Education as a state-approved vendor.

All instructors are certified by the College Board and also serve as Readers for the AP Test in their subject area.

Registration

Registration is taken online at <http://www.AIHE.info>. Click on the link for AP Training on the home page.

Early bird registration

All participants who register before March 30, 2010, for an AIHE AP Summer Workshop will receive the following:

- A one-year subscription to CICERO: History Beyond The Textbook™, the ultimate teaching resource, a $300 value!
Check out this amazing resource now with a FREE TRIAL ACCOUNT at tryCicero.com!
- A copy of Teaching U.S. History Beyond the Textbook: Six Investigative Strategies, Grades 5-12, by Dr. Yohuru Williams.

FINAL REGISTRATION DEADLINE – JULY 2ND, 2010

Tuition Options

Resident Participant	$1,295	This includes all housing and meals (Sunday night dinner, three meals for each full day, breakfast and lunch on Friday). All meals will be served at the Student Center dining hall. Housing accommodations include a suite-style room, private bedroom and shared bath with one other person.
Commuting Participant	$895	This includes continental breakfast and lunch each day along with a daily parking permit.

Attendance Requirement

Participants must attend the entire Workshop, from Monday through Friday, in order to earn a certificate and 30 professional development hours.

For more information contact:

Nick DiGregory
ndigregory@aihe.info
856.241.1990 ext 205